

COMING TO AFRICA

Anwar Jamison (Director/Lead Actor) is a Memphis-based writer, director, actor and professor. He is the CEO of BKE Films, he has written, directed, and executive produced four feature films including his latest project: Coming to Africa. The film won three awards at the 2020 Las Vegas Black Film Festival: Best Comedy, Best Romance, and Best Lead Actress, and was also nominated for fourteen Ghana Movie Awards.

Papa Yaw Addo-Boateng Annan (Producer/Supporting Actor) is an Entertainment Mogul with 21 years of experience. He has worked as a Creative Director, Television Presenter, Radio Personality and Event Producer. He is the CEO of Adonai Creative Centre, a hub for creative minds, the Executive Director of Mi Prime Entertainment, an events and production company, and Creative Director/Founder of Bless The Mic, a platform for young untapped talents from Ghana and across the globe.

Powwah Uhuru (Supporting Actor/Associate Producer) is an entrepreneur, actor, community activist and multi-faceted artist (spoken word, hop-hop and visual). Along with his role in Coming to Africa, he's also been featured in several roles in movies and stage plays.

Basira Mohammed (Production Manager) is a Ghanaian Film Director, Producer and a TV Host. She is a graduate from National Film And Television Institute (NAFTI). With over a decade in the industry, she has worked with reputable production houses in Ghana and abroad such as BKE FILMS (USA), Ginger Ink (Kenya), 7 FILMS (South Africa), Ceejay Multimedia (Ghana), Mediacity Communications (Ghana), Apex Advertising (Ghana), Mi Prime Entertainment (Ghana) and many others.